Submitted by Manoutchehr Eskandari-Qajar

Jennifer is this year's recipient of the Manoutchehr Eskandari-Qajar Scholarship in Political Science and is also our choice for Political Science Student of the Year for 202122. Jennifer has excelled in her classes in Political Science and is currently at 100% (A+) in her Comparative Politics class. Jennifer is an outstanding student with a bright future as she continues her studies after graduation from SBCC and most deserving of both these awards this year at our college.

Jennifer's Words of Gratitude

I am deeply honored to have received this award. Aside from my passion for academia, it is awards like these that motivate me to continue striving for excellence. I would like to thank the Santa Barbara City College Political Science department as a whole as well as Dr. Eskandari and Dr. Kasdin for providing rigorous coursework that has allowed me to grow and flourish as a student. Along with the faculty at SBCC, I would like to thank my amazing mother, best friend, and cat for providing me with tremendous support throughout my journey. Admittedly, this award came out of the blue and I was a bit shocked to have been notified that I received this award. However, it has reassured me in my academic abilities and has shown me that hard work certainly pays off. I believe that success takes a village and I wouldn't be here without the support of the wonderful community I am surrounded by.

From the bottom of my heart, thank you!
